Individual games shall be played to a conclusion until the overall result of the match is ensured. Different players may play in subsequent rounds.
- c) When entries have been received a draw will be made and the teams placed into three regional groups. The number of qualifiers for the final stages will be determined by the number of clubs entered in each region and in proportion to the number of clubs entered in the competition who are required to qualify. There will be 32 teams qualifying for the finals.
- d) Those teams who lose in the first round of the finals will play in a Plate competition the format of which will be the same as the Championship.
- e) PLEASE NOTE: Any club which qualifies for the finals of this Championship but fails to play must provide the Wales Golf Championship Committee with a satisfactory written explanation. If a club fails to provide a satisfactory explanation it may result in the club, at the discretion of the Wales Golf Championship Committee, being prevented from entering the following year's event.

2. Eligibility

All clubs entering this Championship must agree to make their course available as a neutral venue for the Preliminary Rounds.
- b) Agreeing Matches: Equal responsibility lies with both clubs regarding contact to agree matches. If no mutual agreement is reached regarding the date of any match, the match shall be played at 2.30pm on the last qualifying date. If matches are not played by the specified dates, both teams will be scratched, subject to the right of the Chairman of the Championship Committee to grant a walkover to one of them.
- c) Order of Play: The five selected for each round must play in strict order of handicap. When more than one player has the same playing handicap the order of play shall be by exact handicap, should this be the same, the order of play for the players concerned may be decided by the Team Captain.
