Welsh Junior Inter Club Championship 2019
Builth Wells GC, Wednesday 30th October

Wales Golf will be staging the Welsh Junior Inter Club Championship which will serve as a National Final for Junior Club Teams – a club will qualify for the National final by winning its respective County title*.

The format for the National Final will be as follows:

Team of 6 – please ensure that all your affiliated clubs are aware that girls may be included in teams competing in the finals at both Welsh and International level.

One round of Medal Stroke Play
*Handicap Limit of 24
All team members must hold a Competition CONGU handicap
An aggregate of 5 cards to count
The best gross score + four best net scores

The winning team will be the team with the lowest combined aggregate of the best gross and 4 best net scores.

In the event of a tie the net score of the sixth card will be used. If still tied, the back 9, 6, 3 or 1 hole(s) of the original five counting cards will be aggregated ie best gross + 4 best net scores.

Wales Golf must be informed of each County's nomination for the final by no later than Tuesday 8th October 2019 by completing the enclosed form advising of your team members and playing handicaps.

Should anyone have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me.
