

2021 FEMALE SELECTION NOTES

1st May 2021

The aim of this document is to provide insight and guidance on the selection process for Welsh National Golf Teams (Ladies Home International Matches, European Ladies Team Championship, European Girls Team Championship, European Young Masters, Girls Home International Matches ONLY), in order to improve the understanding of players, parents/guardians, personal coaches, the wider golfing membership, media and other interested parties.

It is the intention of Wales Golf to enter teams to compete in the events outlined in this document. However, Wales Golf will consider COVID-19 restrictions and advice from relevant bodies on an ongoing basis and may choose not to compete in these events, should it be in the best interests of Wales Golf and our stakeholders.

We appreciate that the tournament schedule for 2021 is congested, with ongoing changes to event dates likely to lead to clashes. We also appreciate that players will have wide and varied factors to consider when planning their schedule. With this in mind, we will endeavour to take a rounded view of all performances, with the information outlined in this document acting as a guide.

Below you will find notes relevant the selection of teams in 2021, in addition to the following appendices ...

Appendix 1: Eligibility for International Selection

Appendix 2: Members of the 2021 Female Selection Committee

Appendix 3: Key Events
