2022 Seniors Order of Merit and Selection Information

The aim of this document is to provide insight and guidance on the selection process for Welsh National Golf Teams (Senior Men's ONLY), in order to improve the understanding of players, personal coaches, the wider golfing membership, media and other interested parties.

Important Notes

General

- It is the intention of Wales Golf to enter teams to compete in the events outlined in this document. However, Wales Golf will consider COVID-19 restrictions and advice from relevant bodies on an ongoing basis and may choose not to compete in these events, should it be in the best interests of Wales Golf and our stakeholders. We appreciate that there may be changes to the tournament schedule for 2022 and therefore reserve the right to amend the Seniors Order of Merit T&Cs if significant schedule changes occur.
- All persons selected for Welsh teams /competitions must to the satisfaction of the Director of Performance and Selection Committee:
 - Meet the Welsh eligibility criteria (see below)
 - Comply and have complied with the etiquette of golf as laid down by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St Andrews
 - Follow and have followed any guidelines published by Wales Golf relating to conduct and guidance for Welsh Golf Teams
 - Comply with anti-doping rules laid down by the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA), which can be found here <https://www.ukad.org.uk/2021Code> . If players are taking any medication they must check the prohibited list and apply for Therapeutic Use exemption if required.
 - Comply with and conduct themselves in accordance with Welsh Law & Guidelines relating to Covid19. Restrictions regarding Covid-19 vary from country to country and all personnel must respect and comply with the laws within the country they reside in and travel to.
- In all instances Wales Golf reserves the right to not select an eligible player if the selection committee decide that this in the best interests of Welsh golf.
- All selections are subject to a player not being under any kind of review for code of conduct or disciplinary issues either by their Club, County or Wales Golf.
- We would welcome communication regarding your availability to be considered for selection and planned tournament schedule, via email to the Chair of Seniors Golf (Roger Floyd floyd10plus@btinternet.com).

2022 Seniors Order of Merit

The purpose of the Wales Golf "Seniors Orders of Merit" (SOOM) is to provide a recognised schedule of events in which Welsh amateur golfers can compete within their respective categories. A consistent system of awarding points will be applied across domestic and international competitions, ensuring the amateur golfers that perform, are suitably rewarded within the SOOM table. This tables of players is not intended to form a strict ranking of Wales amateurs by ability and outside of automatic selection places the SOOM may not be utilised as to aid selection of Welsh national teams.

Notes

Points tables will be updated after the completion of each event

- Updated tables will be published online
- Queries should be emailed to championships@walesgolf.org

Points allocated are subject to the following conditions, at the discretion of the Seniors Committee

- Average points will be awarded for "tied" finishing positions
- Additional points may be awarded for performances of outstanding achievement in International Championships not listed
- County Championships can request to be included in SOOM (if 54 holes or more)
- Points awarded may be reduced if the number of holes completed in an event are reduced for any reason
